Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded at socredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment cures in the privacy of your home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of bad cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unserupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't.

WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT That in addressing Mrs. Pink-ham you are confidingyour private ills to a woman—
a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.
You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private trou-bles to a man-besides a man

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistthey ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs Pinkham's Standing Invitation,

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly female weakings are invited up in properly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume o experience which she has todraw from it is more than possible that she has it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very fooiish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn. Mass., for special advice.
